SIS GRANTS

A STORY OF HEARTBREAK AND HOPE.

With the holidays peering around the corner we have a story to share. It's a story that breaks your heart and brought our Foundation staff to the verge of tears. It's also a story of hope.

It includes the nervous breakdown of a husband and his adult diagnosis of Asperger's Syndrome. A family who lost everything, and after living in a 12'x12' efficiency apartment for four months, found themselves living in an RV at a state park on the verge of eviction.

Both adults were employed with the husband as the primary wage earner. After his breakdown, he could no longer work. His fragile mental state and the care of their son required a flexible job of his wife. She started waitressing which meant lower wages with increased difficulty to pay for mental health treatments and basic needs. They asked for help from all possible friends and family and sought help through social services. "I don't know if you've ever applied for public assistance. It is a humiliating thing to go through. And because my husband's disability is mental, you are constantly explaining yourself to others."

This story is a great reminder of how quickly life can change, and how mental health can affect an individual, a family, jobs, finances, a home and the future. It's a reminder of how this could be the story of any of us.

Yes – this story is about a sister of ours. One who previously served as Chapter President and later as a Chapter Advisor. With all of the difficulty and heartbreak surrounding her, she continues to put one foot in front of the other and do everything she can to keep moving forward. Circumstances are beginning to improve, and she believes the breakthrough is just ahead.

Your gifts to the Foundation provided a SIS Grant to her for key, daily essentials. It is one of the Foundation's most personal and impactful programs.

*Our SIS Grant program is a confidential program. Our sister offered to anonymously share her story to ask your help in giving to the SIS Grant program so we can be ready for our next sister in need.

CORINTHIAN SOCIETY

A LEGACY OF LOVE

Carole was quiet and studious. If you know Sunny, she's bubbly and bright. Carole Valdez Elliott was Sunny Sumner Oder's sister-mother at Gamma Theta Chapter-Florida Southern College. In 1967 they maneuvered through all that campus and Alpha Gam life brought to them.

As often happens, life took them on different paths after graduation. Sunny forged her success in residential real estate. Carole went on to teach gifted middle school students. Her father was Postmaster in Key West. After he passed away, Carole and her mother spent summers in north Georgia and that's where Carole and Sunny reconnected after many years.

And when the time came, with no remaining biological family members, the roles were reversed. It was Sunny who ensured Carole received the care she needed when she became ill.

Carole had an important last gift to make. She included the Alpha Gamma Delta Foundation in her will, and upon her entrance into Chapter Grand, her $223,000 gift established two funds which will release program support each year for generations to come. The first provides general scholarships, and the second provides annual grants for sisters in need.

Planned gifts are easy, adaptable, and important. Planned gifts are gifts of leadership and sisterhood. Do you have an area of passion you would like to support?

Contact Julie Waitman at jwaitman@ alphagammadeltafoundation.org for more information.

One of my favorite Alpha Gam memories is when I realized that our sisterhood extended beyond my chapter. There are so many ways to learn more about our global Fraternity! I give to the Alpha Gamma Delta Foundation because I appreciate its mission of helping sisters grow as leaders, and in their time of need.
